Coming Home to Hunt

A bill was passed promoting Montana's family hunting heritage by creating nonresident combination hunting licenses for use by adult nonresident family members who wish to return to Montana to hunt with a family member. Under this law, up to 500 Nonresident Big Game Combination and 500 Nonresident Deer Combination licenses can be issued. All money received from the sale of these licenses, must be used by the department to acquire public hunting access to inaccessible public land.

In 2015, the legislature reduced the cost for these licenses to ½ the price of a general combination license. If more than 500 applications are received, 500 will be issued at ½ price and the remaining will go into the general drawing. If successful in the general drawing, those applicants will be given an opportunity to either get a full refund or pay the additional fees for a nonresident combination license.
